

There is a “Trojan Horse” in South Bend

... Christians Have Reasons to be Concerned!

The South Bend City Council is poised to pass what has been misreported as merely a minor “non-discrimination” policy.

Don't be fooled: Know the Facts about the “non-discrimination” ordinance before the council passes this dangerous legislation on July 26th.

FACT: The ordinance erroneously claims to exempt churches and religious organizations. However, the nation’s top legal defender of Christian liberties called Ordinance 30-10 “either poorly written, or written in a way that is not intended to convey much of an exemption.”

FACT: Similar ordinances have been used even in the Midwest to punish groups like the Boy Scouts and the Salvation Army because they do not embrace homosexuality.

FACT: The ordinance is about approval of homosexual behaviors, including cross-dressing. No one supports the mistreatment of others, but supporters have failed to prove legal discrimination by South Bend businesses. This is really about liberal politics, not solving city problems.

FACT: The ordinance is so extreme that it could allow men to use women’s bathrooms or lockerrooms in public or private businesses, creating more legal liabilities for business owners in a time of severe economic distress. Every woman and child is at risk under this law.

FACT: The ordinance is a step toward same-sex marriage in Indiana. Groups like the ACLU often point to these kinds of ordinances as justification for overturning traditional marriage laws in their arguments for same-sex marriage before state courts.
