The U.S. Supreme Court's decision legalizing homosexual marriages in America on June 26, 2015 was wrong.

June 26, 2015 will long be remembered as the day the U.S. Supreme Court destroyed the institution of marriage.

June 26, 2015 will long be remembered as the day the U.S. Supreme Court took away the right of the citizens of Indiana to be able to vote to protect marriage between one man and one woman.

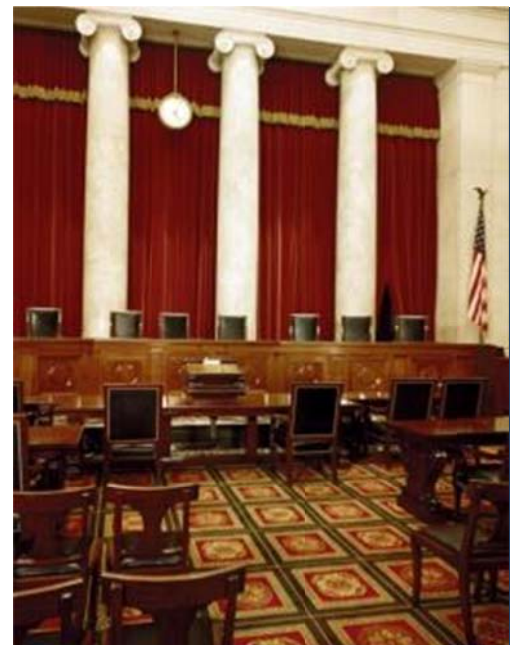

What's Coming Next?

- What will happen now to the church that refuses to let a homosexual marriage take place in the church?
- What will happen now to the pastor that refuses to participate in a homosexual wedding?
- What will happen now to the Christian college that refuses to let a homosexual couple live in the married housing?
- What will happen now to the elementary teacher that refuses to teach the children that homosexuality is normal and acceptable?
- What will happen now to the Christian business owner that refuses to participate in a homosexual wedding ceremony?

This is indeed a tragic day for the citizens of Indiana and America!

But the battle is not over!

Be watching for more details on what can be done to protect pastors, churches, children and Christian businesses from the U.S. Supreme Court decision legalizing homosexual marriages in Indiana and America.
