

URGENT LEGISLATIVE ALERT!

PROTECTING CHILDREN IN INDIANA – AGAIN!

Parents are Responsible For Raising Their Children – Not The Government!

The Senate Version of House Bill 1004 – Will Protect The Children!

Background on the Senate Version of House Bill 1004

- House Bill 1004 deals with school safety!
- On April 4, 2019 Senator Dennis Kruse successfully amended House Bill 1004 in the Senate Education Committee to protect the children and parents of Indiana! The vote was unanimous!
- Here is what the Senate version of House Bill 1004 will do:
  1. Protect all children in the public schools from being subjected to a mental health screening, assessment, evaluation; or mental health services without prior written informed parental consent!
  2. This will prevent children from being labeled as “mentally ill” or “not normal”!
  3. The Senate version will also protect children in Christian and homeschools because those who oppose the Senate version to protect children in the public schools, also want to require all Christian and homeschool children to undergo mental health screenings and assessments too!
- House Bill 1004 passed the Senate on April 11, 2019 and now goes back to the House of Representatives.
