

URGENT LEGISLATIVE ALERT!

PROTECTING CHILDREN IN INDIANA – AGAIN!

Parents are Responsible For Raising Their Children – Not The Government!

House Bill 1004 – With The Kruse Amendment – Will Protect The Children!

Background on House Bill 1004 with the Kruse Amendment!

- House Bill 1004 deals with school safety!
- On April 4, 2019 Senator Dennis Kruse successfully amended House Bill 1004 in the Senate Education Committee to protect the children and parents of Indiana! The vote was unanimous!
- Here is what House Bill 1004 – with Senator Kruse’s Amendment will do:
 1. Protect all children in the public schools from being subjected to a mental health screening, assessment, evaluation; or mental health services without prior written informed parental consent!
 2. This will prevent children from being labeled as “mentally ill” or “not normal”!
 3. Senator Kruse’s Amendment will also protect children in Christian and homeschools because those who oppose Senator Kruse’s Amendment to protect children in the public schools, also want to require all Christian and homeschool children to undergo mental health screenings and assessments too!
- House Bill 1004 could be voted on by the entire Senate on April 11th!
